MINISTER OF INTERIOR CAZENEUVE DEPLORES THE INFRINGEMENT OF THE REPUBLIC

BY THE RIOTS OF MOIRANS

Paris, Washington DC, 23.10.2015, 05:09 Time

USPA NEWS - Minister of the Interior Bernard CAZENEUVE, congratulates the gendarmes, police officers and firefighters of Isère, whose determined action has restored the republican order and to end the unacceptable abuses yesterday in Moirans.

By late afternoon, yesterday, several dozen members of the "Nomadic community" erected a barricade then ignited on the RD 1085. Alongside, hooded individuals set fire to two vehicles on the tracks at the station Moirans, causing the cut-train traffic between Lyon and Grenoble.-----

By early evening, the security forces were deployed regained control of the RD 1085, then to 20 hours from the station.

No injuries were reported. The lights were switched off, traffic on RD1085 road restored. SNCF has supported the evacuation of 218 passengers who were in the two trains near the station Moirans. The incidents recorded in penitentiary Aiton (Savoie) were also stopped by the police.-----

Under the authority of the prefect of Isère John Paul Bonnetain, 70 gendarmes, 55 policemen from provincial gendarmerie group of Isère, 14 officials of the Departmental Directorate of Public Security have been mobilised, and 100 sapeurs- Firefighters SDIS de l'Isère. A safety device will be maintained for the night.

Bernard Cazeneuve also fully supports the Mayor of Moirans and personal of his commune for their cool and commitment.

The Minister of Interior condemns the violence committed with the greatest firmness. All individuals involved, including the investigation is to establish the identity, will have to account for their acts before justice as soon as possible.

Such behaviour does not belong in the Republic." Official Statement French Ministry of Interior.
